

MSBA Construction Law Section CLE

MSBA Offices, Minneapolis
March 14, 2008

Briggs' Attorney Greg Bistram, member of the firm's Business Litigation Practice Group, will speak at the MSBA Construction Law Section CLE scheduled for March 14, 2008. Bistram joins Attorney Bob Huber to present "Ethical Concerns for Lawyer Advocates in Arbitration."

The CLE will explain the extent to which the rules of Professional Responsibility apply to common arbitration issues, as well as address the effect of the ethical rules on out-of-state arbitrations. Attendees will learn how to avoid ethical pitfalls involved in construction arbitration including delay tactics, non-payment of arbitrator fees, contacts with party-appointed arbitrators and enforcement of agreements.

Full information is available at mnbar.org.