

Michael Miller to Speak on Employment and Animal Activists

May 5, 2014

Briggs and Morgan shareholder Michael Miller will participate on the Employment and Animal Activists panel at the Minnesota Turkey Growers Association (MGTA) Summer Conference, June 18, in Alexandria, Minn. He will address questions on employment, hiring and animal activists.

More information about the conference can be found here.

Miller is head of the Employment Law Counseling Practice Group and practices principally in the areas of employment law compliance, employment law counseling and employment litigation. He advises employers in several areas, including discipline and discharge, leaves of absence, wage and hour compliance, non-compete and confidentiality agreements, affirmative action plans, background checking, and drug and alcohol testing.

Attorneys

Michael Miller

Practice Areas

Employment Law
Counseling

Industries

Food and Beverage