

Six Briggs and Morgan Attorneys Achieve Labor and Employment Law Board Certification

March 8, 2011

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. (March 8, 2011) – Briggs and Morgan, Professional Association is pleased to announce Employment, Benefits and Labor shareholders John Hauge, Ann Huntrods, Michael Miller, Michael Moberg, Sally Scoggin and Steven Wilson recently were named board certified Labor and Employment Law Specialists by the Minnesota State Bar Association (MSBA). This certification program is administered by the MSBA and approved by the State Board of Legal Certification. The certified specialist designation has been earned by fewer than three percent of all licensed Minnesota attorneys, and is given to those who demonstrate superior knowledge, skill and integrity in their field.

Ranked as a Minnesota Band 1 practice in Chambers USA, the Employment, Benefits and Labor group has exceptional depth and breadth, advising clients on the full range of labor and employment matters, including employment law counseling, employment litigation, employee benefits and labor law.

Attorneys

R. Ann Huntrods

Michael Miller

Sally Scoggin

Practice Areas

Employment, Benefits and Labor