

Briggs' Michael Miller on Discharge in Employee Benefits Planner

March 1, 2007

Briggs and Morgan shareholder Michael T. Miller, head of the firm's labor and employment section, authors "A Primer on Firing" in the First Quarter 2007 issue of Employee Benefits Planner, Minnesota's Journal of Human Resource Management.

In his article, Miller presents some basic principles on employer discharge practices and how to best minimize risk. Topics include:

- Notice procedure
- Employee-employer communications
- Performance evaluations
- Leave of absence laws (FMLA, ADA and MHRA)
- Retaliation

To read the full article, click here.

Attorneys

Michael Miller